Search Sea For Typhoon Victims

MANILA (AP) — Ships and planes scanned the Visayan Sea today for 126 people still missing from the steamer Pioneer Cebu which was overturned Monday by Typhoon Irma.

Another interisland steamer picked up 136 survivors Wednesday, including a 70-year-old man and a 6-year-old boy. Many were in serious condition, suffering from shock and exposure after drifting without food or water for more than 40 hours in the shark-infested Visayan Sea.

One Vote Bill Passes House

LANSING (AP) — A compromise bill that would require one man-one vote districting for county boards of supervisors starting with the 1968 elections passed the House Wednesday.

The Senate has yet to act on the proposal, worked out by a House-Senate conference committee.

Those backing the bill for county apportionment had hoped for redistricting this year. But House Republicans blocked immediate effect for apportionment measures.

The House adopted the conference committee version 72-24 with no debate.

The version approved by the House Wednesday provides for reapportionment by a commission made up of the county county prosecutor, clerk and treasurer and the county chairmen of both major political parties.

Plastic Heart Removed; No Longer Needed

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — A partial artificial heart has been removed from the chest of a retired Navy chief petty officer. Surgeons at Methodist Hospital said Walter L. McCans' heart condition had improved enough to assume normal function after it had been assisted by the mechanical pump for 27 hours.

He's "still doing fine," a hospital spokesman said today. "He's holding his own."

McCans, 61, Woodville, Wash., received the plastic pump, also called a left ventricular bypass, Tuesday in a five-hour operation. The pump is designed to ease the heart's work load and give a damaged chamber time to heal.

The partial artificial heart was removed Wednesday night when McCans was returned to surgery for removal of chest fluid.

The fluid, according to an earlier hospital bulletin, was causing McCans trouble with his lungs and breathing. But following the operation to remove the heart device they said his vital signs were stable.

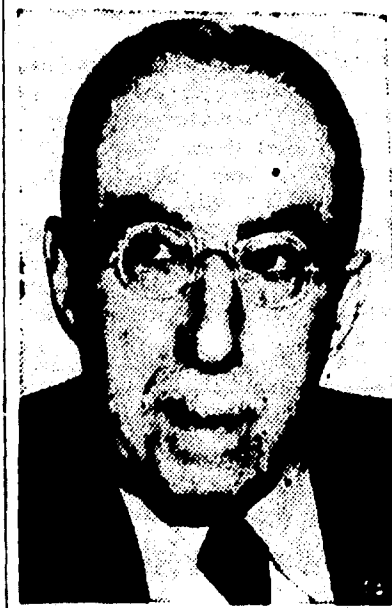

McCans was the second patient to receive an artificial heart within a month. Dr. Michael E. DeBakey internationally known heart surgeon, performed a similar operation April 21 on Marcel L. DeRuder, 65, an Illinois coal miner.

DeRuder lived nearly five days but never regained consciousness. His death was attributed to a rupture of the left lung. DeBakey said the artificial heart was performing satisfactorily when DeRuder died.

The hospital's advisory Wednesday night said removal of the chest fluid caused improvement of lung function and treatment was initiated toward control of a hemorrhagic (bleeding) tendency.

Tests during the removal of chest fluid indicated McCans' heart condition had improved sufficiently to assume normal function without assistance of the pump and with no evidence of heart failure, the hospital stated. The device therefore was removed, it said.

T. F. Green, 98, Oldest Man To Be Senator, Dies

T. F. Green

PROVIDENCE, R.I. (AP) — Theodore Francis Green, 98, who retired from the U.S. Senate in 1960, died today at his home. He was the oldest man ever to serve in the Senate.

Green's doctor said his heart failed.

Green was stricken in late 1962 with a series of cerebral strokes.

For four months he was hospitalized and then went into a nursing home. He left the convalescent home three months later, stepping spryly into a car for the drive to his own home.

Green suffered a broken hip in his home three weeks before his 96th birthday, Oct. 2, 1963.

Cleanup May Be Funds Clean Out

CAHAIS, Maine (AP) — The local Lions Club has launched a cleanup campaign that may well clean out its treasury.

President Leonard Scott said that as part of a beautification campaign, the club offered to pay one cent for each beer can collected along municipal highways by Friday.

But he said Wednesday some 9,500 cans already have been collected—and club members feared that the total may climb astronomically by the end of the week.

Gruening Says Navy Suppliers Red Controlled

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Pentagon says it is investigating Sen. Ernest Gruening's charge that the Navy has unwittingly done business in Hong Kong with companies controlled by Communist China.

The Alaska Democrat called for tighter control procedures to make sure the armed forces do not violate the Trading With the Enemy Act.

"We are looking into this matter," Asst. Secretary of Defense Paul R. Ignatius told Gruening during a Senate hearing on supply policies Wednesday.

Gruening's assertion grew out of an investigation his staff conducted in Hong Kong.

Joseph Lippman, staff director of the Senate subcommittee on Foreign Aid Expenditures, went there in March to make sure that discarded military equipment was not finding its way into Red Chinese hands.

Gruening said Lippman "learned that the U.S. Navy, which operates a procurement office in Hong Kong, had been making substantial purchases of electronic or other equipment from two firms which were owned or controlled or otherwise affiliated with Communist China."

Peggy Ann Bradnick Rests After Ordeal

SHADE GAP, Pa. (AP) — Scratches, bruises, blistered feet and sheer fatigue gave evidence today of schoolgirl Peggy Ann Bradnick's week-long ordeal as the captive of a crazed kidnaper and killer.

Peggy Ann, 17, rested in the Fulton County Medical Center in nearby McConnellsburg. She was safe after a week of hiding and running with her captor, who sometimes dragged her by a chain around her neck as he fled from a massive manhunt in the wooded Tuscarora hillsides.

Two men were dead when the drama ended. One was an FBI agent shot by the kidnaper Tuesday. The other, the kidnaper, William Diller Hollenbaugh, 44, was killed in a final gun battle Wednesday in which a deputy sheriff was wounded.

Hollenbaugh kidnapped Peggy Ann, a quiet, pretty high school girl, at gunpoint May 11 while she and her five brothers and sisters walked home from school.

Dr. Gerald T. Lorentz, medical director at the center, spoke with the girl after her rescue. He said Peggy Ann indicated she spent the first two or three days of captivity in a house or shelter before the pair took to the woods.

"I gather she slept outside during those nights," Lorentz said. "She and Hollenbaugh ate beans and corn out of cans."

Lorentz said the girl told him the kidnaper dragged her by a chain around the neck several times.

Dr. Robert Fry, a physician at the center, said he found no evidence the girl had been molested.

Peggy Ann may have recognized her captor as the lone figure frequently seen pedaling a battered red bicycle through the neighborhood. Local residents of the tiny nearby community of Burnt Cabins called him "Bicycle Bill" and considered him "very strange."

Direct Action Brings Results

LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP) — Mothers on Juniper Drive believe in direct action to protest speeding in front of their homes.

About a dozen of them with many of their children parked themselves on lawn chairs and bicycles in the street so there was no traffic at all.

The human barricade ended after about 15 minutes when police were called.

Police have promised daily motorcycle patrols.

McNamara Urges Every Young American Devote Two Years To Service

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara is thinking of a voluntary effort — not compulsion — in his proposal that every young American devote two years to service either in uniform, the Peace Corps or some other help-mankind program.

Associates of the defense chief said today after McNamara returned from Montreal, where he offered his proposal in a wide-ranging speech to the American Society of Newspaper Editors.

Sources familiar with McNamara's thinking said the secretary envisions both young men and young women taking part. Officials cautioned against jumping to any conclusions that the Pentagon would send implementing legislation to Congress.

They did not rule out the possibility, however.

McNamara's associates also sought to draw attention to other facets of the speech. These included the secretary's call for "building bridges" toward Red China and his emphasis on international peacekeeping as a hoped-for pattern of the future.

It was understood that McNamara and Secretary of State Dean Rusk had reviewed together the foreign policy aspects of the speech before the Pentagon chief went to Montreal to deliver it.

His service for all youth proposal came after he spoke of the need for a worldwide community of effort.

The present young generation in the United States is "committed and dedicated" — it has so shown itself in the Peace Corps overseas and the antipoverty assault at home, McNamara told the editors.

Feds Go After Profiteers In Viet Markets

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Defense Department and the Treasury Department are teaming up to go after American civilians who have returned from Viet Nam with small fortunes made through money manipulation in Viet Nam, officials said today.

"These people will be pursued," one defense official told a reporter.

He said 28 Americans, most of them past and present employees of U.S. contractors in Viet Nam, have been under investigation since returning to this country. Their files have been forwarded to the Treasury for tax scrutiny, he said.

The Pentagon and the Treasury have begun working closely on means to choke off money profiteering and black marketeering in Viet Nam. A Treasury agent will go to Saigon to survey the situation and an official said the agency may eventually station people there.

Over-all, it was learned, 70 U.S. civilians have been the subject of probes. One American netted about $42,000 by money speculation, officials said, and several pocketed profits in the $16,000-$18,000 range.

Officials also said 41 U.S. servicemen in South Viet Nam have been court-martialed or given lesser punishment in the crackdown on black marketeering and currency manipulation.

Offenders in money speculation were said to have been chiefly U.S. civilians. Servicemen were involved for the most part in selling post exchange goods on the black market.

Central Freight Wreck Caused By 11-Year-Old Boys

THREE RIVERS (AP) — A New York Central freight derailment which caused an estimated $75,000 damage at Three Rivers has been traced to a pair of 11-year-old boys, authorities said today.

Enory Dailey, Three Rivers youth officer, and railroad detectives said the boys told of playing with a switch they apparently left open into a siding before the accident Monday. Three diesel engines and six cars from a 65-unit string left the tracks. No injuries were reported.

Dailey said the boys were released to their parents after authorities agreed there was no malicious intent in the switch manipulation.

Military Junta Bans Politics By Servicemen

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — Premier Nguyen Cao Ky's troops surrounded rebel headquarters in Da Nang today after more than four hours of heavy shooting around the Buddhist stronghold. The government appeared trying to choke off the dissidents rather than wipe them out in a direct attack.

In an attempt to exploit the turmoil, the Viet Cong's underground Liberation radio threw Communist support behind the rebels and urged all South Vietnamese troops to "rise up" against the government.

Buddhist leaders in Saigon and the northern provinces sent pleas for intervention to end the civil strife to world leaders, but significantly the monks avoided any association with the Viet Cong overtures.

The Buddhists also canceled all rallies today to avoid the impression that they might be in honor of North Vietnamese President Ho Chi Minh's 76th birthday today.

War Action Light

In the war against the Communists, only one major ground action was reported and monsoon rains held U.S. Air Force and Navy planes to 23 missions against North Viet Nam.

The U.S. command announced the loss, apparently to ground fire, of an Air Force C123 cargo plane on a flare-drop mission 38 miles northwest of Qui Nhon. Bodies of two crewmen were found in the wreckage, and the other three were listed as missing.

Allied dead and missing last week, announced today, remained at the level of the week before, but the enemy killed more than doubled. Spokesmen announced 86 Americans killed compared to 82 the week before, 91 South Vietnamese killed or missing in action as against 82 last week, 988 Viet Cong killed and 192 captured as compared to 456 killed and 121 captured last week.

Casualties In Da Nang

Both loyalist and anti-government forces took casualties as the eruption of fighting in Da Nang, South Viet Nam's second largest city, created the danger of a war within a war.

Ky's airborne commander, Brig. Gen. Du Quoc Dong, declared his move toward the pagodas was only intended to open the roads and was not a drive on the Buddhist compound. He said the rebels opened fire first.

U.S. Marines stationed on the outskirts of Da Nang appeared to be making an effort to stay clear of any involvement with either side.

The Marines took control of a disputed bridge over the Da Nang River Wednesday.

The shooting came in two-hour outbursts during the morning and in the afternoon as Ky's forces closed in on three Buddhist pagodas where an estimated 1,000 troops and Buddhists had collected in a three-block-square pocket of resistance.

When the second round ended, a government loudspeaker truck toured the area calling on civilians to stay in their homes or leave under the protection of Ky's troops. The government troops obviously were trying to hold down civilian casualties.

A paratrooper officer said eight of his men had been wounded but none killed.

A Buddhist spokesman in Saigon said 10 Buddhists had been killed, 54 wounded and 34 arrested.

About 500 government troops exchanged fire with the rebels as two of Ky's tanks moved slowly down a street toward the pagodas.

While the opposing forces maneuvered in South Viet Nam's revolt-torn northern provinces, the military junta banned all political activity in the armed forces, threatening severe penalties for those who disobey.

The Vietnamese Defense Department directive emphasized the order also applied to chaplains by declaring "a number of religious chaplains went far beyond their religious roles."

Buddhist chaplains have been charged with fomenting anti-government sentiment among troops in the Vietnamese army's northernmost 1st Corps area.

Petition For Vote:

Teamsters Want Police In Their Union Ranks

The question of what union will be the bargaining agent for Escanaba police officers was the subject of a hearing by the Michigan Labor Mediation Board in Escanaba Wednesday.

Teamsters Union Local 328 has signed the officers as members and wants to represent them in collective bargaining with the City of Escanaba.

The State and Municipal Employees Local 78 told Labor Mediation Board Trial Examiner James R. McCormick that it wants the policemen to continue in its membership with other municipal employees.

The City of Escanaba through City Attorney John G. Erickson stated the position that the Municipal Employees are "the appropriate group" to represent the police and opposed the Teamsters' bid for the officers.

Teamsters Ask Vote
Involved are 18 police officers—14 patrolmen and four sergeants. The police chief and captain are rated administrative personnel and do not belong to a union.

The controversy over union representation of Escanaba's city police was brought to the Labor Mediation Board by a petition of the Teamsters, who asked for a vote of the officers supervised by the Labor Mediation Board.

The officers earlier this year withdrew from the Municipal Employees union and signed as members of the Teamsters.

Trial Examiner McCormick said that to his knowledge it is the first police department in Michigan organized by the Teamsters.

Under The Law
George Dunlap of Escanaba, business agent for Teamsters Local 328, at the hearing directed attention to the provisions of Act 379 of 1965. The act gives public employees—including police officers—the right to form or join labor unions as they choose. They have freedom of choice under the law, he emphasized.

Howard Case, Iron Mountain, business agent for the State and Municipal Employees, directed attention to the possible "conflict of interest" in a strike situation if the police became members of a private industrial union.

Case argued that the Mediation Board should decide representation for the police officers on the basis of "the appropriate group for bargaining in the best interests of the public."

McCormick agreed that there are "elements of difference between public and private employment" and said that the Board would undoubtedly consider them in its deliberations.

McCormick said a Board decision may be expected within 30 to 40 days. The Teamsters indicated they will file briefs as soon as a transcript of the hearing is available.

Privately there were comments at the hearing that no matter what the decision of the Mediation Board an appeal will be taken to the Supreme Court.

Witnesses called by the Teamsters Union were Francis Costley of the city's electrical department, and Sgt. Richard Frederick of the police department.

Sergeants Out?
Another question raised at the hearing was whether the police department's four sergeants serve in a supervisory capacity and if so, whether they should be union members.

"If the Mediation Board decides there should be an election (to determine the union affiliation of the police) then the City of Escanaba, as the employer representing the people of the community, had City Attorney Erickson, City Manager George Harvey and Controller Frank Bourke at the hearing. Harvey outlined the traditional affiliation of the police with the Municipal Employees for purposes of collective bargaining.

The arrangement is satisfactory said Harvey. The city would prefer to negotiate with its workers "as city employees and public servants," the manager added. Public budgeting is distinctly different than the budget problems of private industry and bargaining with employees is therefore not similar, he added.

Bourke told the trial examiner that the city has had a "check off" for Municipal Employees union dues for many years. This has included the policemen, he said.

Called as witnesses by the Municipal Employees were Robert Holt, secretary, and Milton Lueneburg, president of the union.

Harnischfeger Scholarship

Keith Apelgren, Gladstone, Wins

Keith Apelgren, 18, of 807 Minnesota, Gladstone, is one of two winners in the Walter Harnischfeger commemorative scholarship awards.

Apelgren and Susan K. Russler, 17, Whitefish Bay, Wis., the other winner, were selected from a group of 10 scholarship finalists in Milwaukee.

Judging was by a Scholarship Committee composed of Harnischfeger Corp., officials and a representative of the Milwaukee School of Engineering.

The 18-year-old Gladstone senior, whose father, Neil, is employed as a union standards analyst at Harnischfeger's Escanaba Works, plans to study for a degree in chemical engineering at Michigan Tech, Houghton after graduation from Gladstone High School.

Keith and Miss Russler, chosen for their scholastic record, general aptitude for college level study, qualities of good citizenship and leadership, plus the ability to meet entrance requirements of the college of their choice, will each receive $1,250 in scholarship award money per school year for a 4-year bachelor course.

Ending up as one of the finalists in the scholarship awards screening was Henry Mroczkowski Jr., 18, of Bark River. Henry's father works as a tape controlled drill press operator at Harnischfeger's Escanaba truck crane plant. Named after the company's present chairman of the board, the scholarship fund was established in 1963 to mark Walter Harnischfeger's 50th year with the company. The awards are made annually to sons and daughters of Harnischfeger employees or retirees.

Coming For The U.P.

Larger School Districts

The present movement to reorganize small Upper Peninsula school districts into larger ones is only a beginning, the recent U. P. Conference on Improvement of Education at Northern Michigan University, Marquette, was told by Professor Richard Featherstone, assistant dean of the College of Education, Michigan State University.

The statement was thematic of the discussion in the panel of the conference devoted to school reorganization. Also stressed was the hurt that U. P. schooling is suffering from lack of modern districting.

Edwin Wuchle, Manistiquette school superintendent, and Joseph Hampton, Painesdale superintendent, moderated the panel discussion.

Eastern U. P.

Highlights of the reports follow:

Norman Wixson, assistant superintendent of schools for the Chippewa, Mackinac and Luce Intermediate District, said on April 25, a vote on reorganization was taken in this district which resulted in several districts combining with others. The most notable of these was that of 6 surrounding districts combining with the Newberry District. The township school districts which joined Newberry formed. Sault Ste. Marie annexed the Sault Township District and other districts in southern Chippewa and eastern Mackinac counties were combined.

Joseph Hampton reported that in the recommendation of the Houghton County Committee on Reorganization there was no recommendation for combination of high school districts. The only recommendations were for the combination of districts which had no high schools with those who have. Hampton said this was disappointing to many of those who had hoped for more effective high school districts, with numbers large enough to offer a comprehensive school program.

Escanaba Problem

Edward Kuich Jr., member of the Menominee Area District Board of Education and president of the Upper Peninsula Association of School Board Members and School Administrators, said that the city of Menominee a few years ago took in several primary districts around it and that for the time being that is as far as it is going to go.

Reorganization of small high school districts in the rest of Menominee County is under consideration by the County Committee on Reorganization.

Mrs. Robert Mosenfelder, member of the Escanaba Area Board of Education, said that Escanaba had annexed three township districts in 1959 and that from that time up until December, 1965, the district had not been able to pass a bond issue or millage issue. She said the Delta - Schoolcraft County Committee on Reorganization had recommended that the Bark River-Harris District join the Escanaba Area district but that the state law affecting school reorganization would make it necessary to vote over again the bonds and millage passed in December 1965 if the proposed combination passes in the July 25 election.

In other words, if the Bark River-Harris District joins the Escanaba Area District, the effect of the school financing vote in 1965 will be nullified and the new district will have to vote over again on these questions. Since the Escanaba Area District has had such a hard time getting a favorable vote on these issues, it is reluctant if not unwilling to recommend combination with the Bark River-Harris District.

Changes Beginning

Professor Featherstone, of Michigan State University; Dr. Russell Wilson, consultant from the Bureau of School Services, University of Michigan, and George Schutt, consultant on reorganization from the Department of Education in Lansing were the consultants for this discussion.

Professor Featherstone said the present movement toward the reorganization of small school districts into larger ones in Michigan is only a beginning. This will go on from 10 to 20 years in the future until school districts become large enough to support high schools of sufficient size to carry on comprehensive programs of education.

According to some of the recommendations made by Dr. James Bryant Conant, such as having a high school of 500 or more students or having a graduating class of 100 or more. There will be considerable pressure for redistricting as people grow more and more aware of the necessity for more effective schooling and how size affects the effectiveness of education.

Scholarship Trend

Dr. Wilson deplored wide circulation throughout Michigan of a report that most of the National Merit Scholarship semi-finalists were coming from Class D and E high schools. He cited statistics compiled at the University of Michigan which show: Class A schools in Michigan have 59.9 per cent of all the high school pupils in Michigan with 75.3 per cent of all of the National Merit Scholarship winners coming from these schools.

Class B has 21.1 per cent of all Michigan high school students and 17.0 per cent of National Merit Scholarship semi-finalists; Class C has 13.8 per cent of all high school students and 6.4 per cent of National Merit Scholarship semi-finalists; Class D and E schools have 5.2 per cent of all high school students enrolled but only 1.4 per cent of National Merit Scholarship semi-finalists.

In other words, the Class A schools, which are the largest, have a much higher proportion of National Merit Scholarship semi-finalists than smaller size schools and that Class D and E have a much smaller percentage in proportion to the total enrollments of National Merit Scholarship semi-finalists which would seem to indicate that size of a school has considerable relationship to the quality of education being given.

George Schutt deplored the fact that people in many areas of the state seem to be more concerned with factors which had little to do with the quality of education their children were getting when considering a reorganization into larger districts. He said too often people were influenced by such things as "What will happen to our basketball team or where will the new school be built?" when they should be concerned with the greater question of what kind of an education are our children getting now and how can this be improved by combination into a larger district.

Summer School Program Planned At Stephenson

A summer enrichment program in reading, language and mathematics has been planned for pupils in the Stephenson Consolidated and Cedar River school districts. In addition, instructional activities in art, music, and physical education will be included in the daily schedule.

Pupils eligible for this program include those enrolled in grades 2 through 8 during the 1965-66 school year. Based on a teacher survey, plans have been made to accommodate approximately 20 pupils in each of these grades.

The program is scheduled to begin June 14 and end July 28. It will operate on Tuesdays, Wednesday and Thursdays only. Classes will begin at 9 a.m. and dismiss at 3 p.m. School lunch will be available at the regular price. School bus transportation will also be provided. Classes will be held at the Stephenson Elementary School and at the Cedar River School.

Supervisors will include Mrs. Margaret Hotop in the reading-language area and John Sundquist in the mathematics area. In addition, ten teachers and six teacher aides will be used.

Enrollment forms are available in the principal's office at the Cedar River, Daggett, and Stephenson Elementary schools and at the Stephenson High School. They should be submitted as soon as possible.

War On Poverty

Christ said "The poor you have always with you."

But we have a War on Poverty going that is aimed at the reduction and elimination of poverty in our affluent society.

There is not, of course, a contradiction in what Christ said and in what the Johnson Administration is saying in proposing its Great Society program to eliminate poverty.

But there is an eternal truth in what Christ said and it applies to our War on Poverty of today and should shape our regard for that effort.

The poor we WILL have always with us and nothing that the Johnson Administration nor anyone else does will change it. This is because "the poor" is a relative term. It means very different things in different places and in different times.

There are not, for instance, any "poor" in America in terms of what being "poor" means in India. Nor even in Spain.

America has a very high standard of living. People who are at the bottom of our economic ladder are a far cell below those at the top.

The greatness of this disparity is what the Johnson Administration is attacking in its War on Poverty. But we should be mindful that even if the war is as successful as its most hopeful advocates plan we will still have our "poor." They will be the ones at the bottom, no matter how much they have been lifted up by the War on Poverty.

They will be the New Poor. The Less Poor. But they will be The Poor. The poor are not necessarily in want of the basic needs of life; they are the people with the lowest income or least means in any economic system.

The War on Poverty effort is a proper one of attempted rescue of the people who have fallen behind the general push for a good living. It is particularly hurtful today because these people's children are most apt to be the ones who fail to get good schooling, no matter how bright they may be, because their poverty puts them in a poor learning environment competitively.

But any effort of the War on Poverty to push its rescue work past equality or educational opportunity, health services, job training and similar aids is opening a Pandora's Box of public demands.

One third of the American economy already is devoted to government services. One third of all the earnings in America now go to government. The percentage of government need for services like military expenses, foreign aid and space exploration has fallen steadily; from 82 per cent in 1944 to 30 per cent in 1964.

But government is fostering ever-increasing social services in the United States. There is no chance of ever catching up with the demands for these "free" public services, says Roger Freeman of the Hoover Institution of Stanford University.

"Demand will always be far ahead of supply, because so-called standards will be pushed up as soon as performance approaches old standards. There is no limit to human wants and desires."

Government spending has risen nearly three times as fast as personal spending during the last 10 years. The reason is that our personal purchases of goods or services is conditioned by our having to pay for them.

With government services it's different. People think of them as "free," with the cost borne by someone else.

Freeman says the abolition of poverty is a noble idea, but not a new one. The American people have been engaged in the most effective antipoverty program in the history of income so that many more persons share in it.

Helping those on the bottom is a worthy concern, but we shouldn't forget that the great middle bulge comes from opportunities, not handouts.

Mayor's Exchange

The Mayor's Exchange of Michigan Week is a social success and pleasant escape from the realities of taxes and other municipal troubles, but it has yet to establish itself as something more than a frothy frosting on the municipal cake.

But if we're going to continue it, have them send us mayors like Dean Eckersley of Mt. Pleasant, who addressed a joint meeting of Escanaba's service clubs at Marco's Monday while Escanaba Mayor Harold Vanlerberghe was doing the honors at Mt. Pleasant.

Mayor Eckersley noted that Escanaba is just getting into municipal planning with federal aid. Mt. Pleasant has been in it several years and now has its master plan.

Eckersley wishes that Mt. Pleasant, whose largest employers are Central Michigan University and the State Home & Training School, had Escanaba's industries. "Because the state institutions, while they are fine and most welcome, don't provide any tax base."

Mayor Eckersley said that in a tongue-in-cheek effort to broaden the tax base Mt. Pleasant's hustling chamber of commerce manager approached the New York Stock Exchange. It is unhappy with New York City's increasing taxation. With a new city transfer tax proposed, NYSE President Keith Funston suggested that the exchange consider seeking another site.

"Why not Mt. Pleasant?" suggested the Mt. Pleasant C.C.

Funston wrote a courteous letter thanking the city for the invitation and saying that if-and-when it would be considered. Meanwhile yours truly, Wall Street, New York City.

The New Diplomacy

Anyone who has tried to practice his fractured French or ghostly German or damaged Danish while abroad by asking such inane questions as, "When will your mother's aunt return from the countryside?" will welcome a new tourist dictionary brought out by a British publisher.

It is a compendium of suitable insults in four languages—French, German, Italian and Spanish.

For example, when encountering a bad restaurant, one can say such devastating things as: "Do you serve indigestion tablets with every meal?" Or, "Do you keep pigs here?" Or, "When did the waiters start their strike?"

The publisher, however, disclaims responsibility "for any consequences that may flow from the use of terms contained in this book."

Johnson Against Mandatory Auto Safety Standards

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Johnson Administration reaffirmed Wednesday its opposition to mandatory federal safety standards for automobiles.

It also opposed federal grants to the states for development of "prototype" safety cars, but it supported a proposal to require auto manufacturers to notify owners of all safety defects.

The administration's position on proposed amendments to its traffic safety bill was set forth by Robert Giles, the Commerce Department's general counsel, in a letter to Chairman Warren Magnuson, D-Wash., of the Senate Commerce Committee.

The committee is to meet Tuesday to start getting the legislation in shape for Senate action.

No More 'KP'

TACOMA, Wash. (AP) — Airman at McChord Air Force Base got some news Friday that sent their spirits soaring.

There will be no more "KP." The Air Force says it's cheaper to hire civilians. A 65-man civilian force will take over mess hall duties July 1.

The Doctor Says:

No Single Vaccine For All Colds

By Dr. Wayne G. Brandstadt

Q—My son started taking cold shots last winter. The doctor says he should go on with them all summer or he will lose his immunity. What do you think?

A—There are vaccines against various influenza viruses but two shots in the early fall each year are all that are required. These shots protect only against the prevailing type of influenza.

There are so many viruses responsible for the common cold that it would be impossible to give a single vaccine that would prevent all of them. The only one for which a vaccine has so far been developed is the adenovirus and the vaccine for that is given by mouth.

Q—Should a man and woman marry and have children if they are of the ABO blood group and have the same Rh factor? I have heard that all children from such a marriage would be blue babies.

A—When a woman who has Rh-negative blood (only about 15 per cent of the population have this type) has developed anti-Rh - positive antibodies through having previously carried a Rh-positive baby in an earlier pregnancy, her next child may have erythroblastosis. This has no relationship to the blue baby that is born with a congenital heart defect.

The ABO group of the parents has no influence on this or other congenital defects.

Q—A relative has Fales' disease. His doctor says it is incurable. What is the latest information on this?

A—In this disease the victim gets recurrent hemorrhages of the retina and the gelatinous substance in the eyeball. In most victims the cause can't be found but in some it is caused by tuberculosis, rheumatic fever or Buerger's disease. If the cause is found and treated the vision can be saved. If no cause is found the disease gradually leads to blindness but its progress can sometimes be stopped by giving drugs of the cortisone group or by the use of a beam

Aussies Tried Hard

By WASHINGTON STAFF

WASHINGTON (NEA) — Near the end of his recent trip to the Far East, Vice President Hubert Humphrey stopped in Australia for a brief visit with Prime Minister Harold Holt.

Arriving at the conference, Humphrey found a small group of Aussie Vietnam picketing the building with the customary "Get Out of Viet Nam" placards.

To Humphrey—who as presiding officer of the Senate often listens to verbal "picketing" by such dove senators as William Fulbright and Wayne Morse—this was old stuff, but he couldn't resist joshing Holt about it.

"Last night when I arrived," he told the prime minister, "you gave me a lovely sunset—just like those we have in Texas. This morning you gave me a wonderful crisp Minnesota breeze. And now these pickets. You're really gone out of your way to make me feel at home."

Telling the story later, Humphrey added:

"Little did I know to what lengths Prime Minister Holt had really gone. I found out that the leader of the pickets was a Brooklyn girl—a graduate of the University of Calfornia who was in Australia on a Fulbright scholarship!"

In the recently concluded Alabama Democratic primary, Gov. George Wallace, campaigning for his wife Lurleen, enjoyed taking potshots at northerners who criticize the South.

He referred often to his visits to various colleges and universities, noting that his controversial presence often demanded huge police forces to protect him from harm.

"When I went to Harvard University," he said, "it took 500 policemen to get me into the building. I had to leave by an underground route."

"I know every steam pipe in Harvard."

Wallace, throughout the primary campaign, kept a sharp eye out for Wallace bumper stickers wherever he went. Riding in his car, he would point out every one he saw, even in journeys of 40 miles or more.

What perhaps made him happiest was hearing that an ailing supporter in a hospital had had someone plaster a Wallace sticker on his oxygen tent.

The governor visited the man and probably was told that the sticker did more to restore him to health than the oxygen.

Harland Cleveland, U. S. ambassador to the North Atlantic Treaty Organization, found out the hard way that reporters in foreign countries don't always operate the same way as their American colleagues.

After delivering a speech to a Paris press association, Cleveland asked a French newswoman what he planned to write.

"I could," came the answer, "write that you threw down the gauntlet to the Soviet Union. I could also write that you held out the olive branch to the Soviet Union. Either would make a story."

"But since you did both, I don't think there's a story here at all."

Issue Stock

LANSING (AP) — The State Public Service Commission has authorized issuance by United Air Lines, Inc., of 1,689,137 shares of common stock at $5 a share. Present shareholders will be given priority in the stock purchase.

Michigan Mirror

Superman wasn't available so the State Board of Education found a man right here in Michigan to serve as the first appointive Superintendent of Public Instruction.

The qualifications of Ira Polley to serve in the new $30,000 a year post are being questioned by professionals in the field, but that is a matter to be decided by the legal experts.

Worthy of note in the selection of Polley is the process itself.

When the State Board of Education was created by the 1963 Constitution and elected the following year, it set about quickly to find a replacement for Lynn M. Bartlett. He was leaving to accept a federal post shortly after his elective term expired.

That was nearly a year ago. As in the search some time back to get a psychiatrist to head the Mental Health Department, nationwide efforts were undertaken to get a field of candidates from which to choose.

The figure heard most during the closed-door deliberations was about 30 applicants interviewed.

Narrowing this field was a big job. Some of the applicants withdrew themselves and the Board dropped others from consideration.

When it came to a final decision, an offer reportedly was made to an out-of-state man who declined the position.

There followed several weeks of meetings during which Polley's name reportedly was the only one given serious consideration. Finally, a deadlock vote was broken when one board member changed his mind.

Said Dr. Edwin L. Novak of Flint, "We had been looking for a superintendent who didn't exist." Other state government units might remember Novak's observation when looking for other top level personnel.

10 Years Ago

First Presbyterian Westminster Hall kitchen was a scene of activity as members of the Women's Association were busy preparing for the Festival of Foods, buffet style supper. Working were Mrs. Victor Thorin, Mrs. Leonard Olson, Mrs. Jack Sprague, Mrs. Howard Plucker, Mrs. Leonard Vader, who had the assistance of her young son, Danny, Mrs. Charles Anspaugh and Mrs. Alice Allen.

The Escanaba Recreation Board, a citizen's advisory committee, met with officers and members of the Escanaba Youth Organization who made recommendations for setting up new facilities for teenagers at the Youth Center, Club 314. Spokesmen for the EYO recommended installation of booths, and a soda fountain, new juke box and amplifiers, pin ball machines, a smoking lounge and more adequate parking facilities at the Youth Center.

25 Years Ago

There is no lost motion or steps in the compact little factory of Alvin Ness where he started his small business of manufacturing concrete burial vaults. The building was constructed by its owner about "a year ago" and is situated on the corner across from the tourist park on the Lake Shore road.

Andy P. Olafson is disgusted with spring house cleaning and wishes he was back "in the old days with the Indians which had no ceilings in their Wig Wams to Wash & the wife could go out and cut a new rut off a Balsam tree when the old one got worn out and they could even build a new Wig Wam without getting a Govt. building loan and did not have to worry about Priorities on Materials for building and next Spring I think I will set up a Wig Wam to live in during House cleaner time or maybe I will make it a Boom shelter."

Ann Landers

It Is Not Your Style And It Never Will Be

Dear Ann Landers: I'm a 14-year-old girl who is a miserable blob of nothing. Nobody remembers my name. I know some very nice boys who have been introduced to me three or four times and they still don't know me from a load of corn.

I am very quiet because I can't think of anything interesting to say. How I envy the girls who have the knack of coming up with just the right remark. I feel nervous when I try to smile or laugh, as if I am forcing myself to be part of the group when I really feel way out of everything.

My trouble isn't looks. I am not too fat or too thin, or too short or too tall. My skin and hair and eyes are nice and a teacher once told me I have a lovely smile. I am neat and have good manners and I don't talk about people behind their backs.

Please tell me how to keep from going through life being a nothing that nobody remembers. —MISS DULL

Dear Miss: Quiet people, such as you, should not try to be what they are not. Even though you may envy the girl who comes on like Gangbusters, this is not your style and it will never be.

Don't attempt to shine in a crowd. Turn your acquaintances into friends — one at a time. A girl who shows an interest in others — asks questions, encourages them to talk, and listens in a genuinely interested fashion — will not be forgotten.

Dear Ann Landers: For two years I have been going to a dental school to get my teeth fixed. The cost for all the work was only $200 since the school charges only for the materials.

The same student has worked on my teeth from the very first. He has been just wonderful to me. He graduates in June and I will be finished at the same time. I would like to give him a check for $50 to show my appreciation. My husband thought this was a very good idea.

My in-laws, however, are against it. They feel this would be much too personal a gesture and the young man's wife might not like it. They suggested that I make a donation to the dental school instead.

Do you think they are right? I don't want to embarrass anybody. Thanks for your advice. I'm going to take it. —MRS. I. M. THANKFUL

Dear Mrs.: Since you feel the young man was especially kind to you I feel that a gift to him is indeed appropriate. Give him a $50 gift certificate and let him treat himself (or his wife) to something special.

Red Cherry Crop Prospect Better

TRAVERSE CITY (AP) — Cherry crops in Grand Traverse County appear to have fared better than others stricken by heavy recent freezes, County Agricultural Agent George McManus said Wednesday.

Tart cherries, he said, appear to be better off than they were in the short crop of 1963. Sweet cherries were doing much better, he added.

"The bloom," McManus said, "will give a more accurate indication of the damage." He said blooming still is some weeks away.

McManus commented after completing a swing of northwestern Lower Michigan orchards. He said he believed his area's tart cherry crop would "make out better" than others elsewhere in the nation which were stricken by frost damage.

Michigan Week Feature Is Cheerio

Delta Livelihood Rated Best Ever

Delta County marked Livelihood Day of Michigan Week at a Dutch treat luncheon of men and women concerned with the community's means of earning a living at Marco's Wednesday noon.

The meeting was attended by 70 persons and was notable for:

1. The spirit of optimism about the economic future of this area.

2. Report that Delta and Schoolcraft counties have the lowest rate of unemployment (only 500 registered for work May 15 and 164 of those females and 100 youths) in many years.

3. A vital new spirit of industrial Go-Go in Gladstone, which sent many of its business leaders to the luncheon.

4. A new willingness of area industry to train workers in job skills.

5. The diversity of industrial and business products produced in the area.

Damitz Presides
James Damitz, manager of the Delta-Schoolcraft office of the Michigan Employment Security Commission, was toastmaster and introduced a program which honored Delta's Farmer of the Year Arthur Tourangeau, Miss Delta County Cherie Ann Maskart of Gladstone, and the Livelihood Day essay contest winner, and Delta County Product of the Year award winner.

David Farrand, Industrial

specialist of UPCAP, introduced Keith Apelgren, son of Mr. and Mrs. Nels Apelgren of Gladstone, a senior at Gladstone High School as winner of $25 first prize in the essay contest on Delta's industrial opportunities. Apelgren is also winner of the Walter Harnischfeger commemorative scholarship of $1,250 a year for four years to attend Michigan Tech to study chemical engineering.

Essayist runners-up were Susan Schram and Vicki Phalen of Gladstone.

Reuben Sjoquist, manager of Eaton Yale & Towne, Gladstone, presented the Product of the Year award to President John Walbridge of American Timber Homes, Inc., for its popular Chalet vacation home.

Jean Worth, editor of the Escanaba Daily Press, told the diners that the area had lost thousands of jobs by the phasing out of railroad activities, breweries, sawmills, wood chemical industry, a tannery, flooring factory, plywood mill and many other industries and would be a very dead pigeon today were it not for new elements in its economy.

Brightest Prospect
They add up, he said, to the brightest prospect for area economic growth in local history and the prospect is made even brighter by growing public interest in the economy and willingness to work for it, as a support for education and other public needs.

The Made-In-Delta products display included many nationally circulated magazines printed on Escanaba Division, Mead Corp., papers; a Harnischfeger wire feeder for short arc welding, Saykly's candies, Marble Arms sporting goods, Goodman Division of Calumet & Hecla's statement of activities in wood industry; aged cheddar, pepperoni, and curd cheese made by the Rapid River Cheese Co. (with generous samples distributed by co-owner Harry Buchman), American Timber Homes.

Escanaba Dairy products, Hansen Canning Co. tinned foods, Ely's Potato Chips, Bancroft Dairy products, Mel Taylor's eggs, Gagner Automotive & Machine Co. loaders, Coca-Cola Co. products.

Don Keskey Is Elected Head Of Student Group
MARQUETTE—Donald Keskey, 19-year-old sophomore at Northern Michigan University, has been elected president of the University's Student Government Association.

Br. Nicholas Leaves Board

Brother Nicholas, chairman of the City Recreation Board for the past two years, announced his resignation at a meeting Wednesday night at the City Hall council chambers.

Brother Nicholas, principal of the boys division of Holy Name High School for six years, will be transferred to Stevens Point (Wis.) Pacelli High School where he will serve as a teacher.

Brother Nicholas, who served on the Recreation Board for five years, will study this summer at Stout University, Menomonie, Wis. He was commended by Paul Vardigan, acting recreation director, for his service to the community in recreation and education circles.

Vardigan reported to the board on progress of a new junior softball league which is being formed for boys 14-17 years of age.

The board approved closing of the road to the municipal beach at 9 p. m. each night during the summer.

Vardigan announced that application forms for the new college work-study program to be inaugurated here this summer are available at Bay de Noc College and at the office of Ray LaPorte, Community Action Agency director, in the Delta County Building.

U. P. Will Get Atomic Power

An atomic power plant that will channel nuclear energy to Iron Mountain and other Upper Peninsula points will be erected at the town of Two Creeks, in Manitowoc County, Wisconsin, if governmental approval is granted.

Wisconsin - Michigan Power Co., revealed the selection of the site for the 450,000-kilowatt plant. Target date for completion is 1970 and the cost has been set at $60 million.

Two Creeks is about 10 miles north of Two Rivers and due east of Appleton, headquarters city of Wisconsin-Michigan.

For many years, Wisconsin-Michigan has purchased its electricity from Wisconsin Electric Power Co. in southeastern Wisconsin. With advent of nuclear power however, the firm considered generation closer to the cities it serves.

Regulatory approval for the new facility must be obtained from the Wisconsin Public Service Commission and the federal Atomic Energy Commission.

The AEC must first approve the site and issue construction grants before the project can be started. The Wisconsin Commission's action will be decided upon "public convenience and necessity."

Tribute Is Due For Middle-Aged

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP) — A "Great Society" should recognize its real heroes.
Since this is so, isn't it about time that President Johnson and the Congress formulated a program to pay tribute to "the overlooked generation"—America's middle-aged population?
There are unsung millions of people in this age bracket—between 40 and 65—who are literally starved for a kind word and a friendly pat on the back.
They are the most taken-for-granted generation in all history—and the least rewarded.
Yet they are the hinge generation of America. It all depends on them. If every middle-aged man and woman went on strike and refused to do his duty for a single week, the conduct of civilization would cease.

Factories and business offices would shut down, railroads grind to a halt, schools close, department stores and restaurants shutter their doors, theaters ring down their curtains.
The middle-aged not only do most of the nation's work, but also are chief keepers of the nation's pocketbook. When they don't spend, the economy is punctured.
Yet the middle-aged person is the patsy of the times. Everybody else depends on him, but he gets less credit than anybody.

You can win a medal on a battlefield in five minutes. But no medals are awarded for our most numerous heroes—those who quietly and unspectacularly fight the long 25-year daily grind that stretches between their 40th birthday and final victory—retirement.

Why not a national day honoring them? Why not give medals to the middle-aged? Certainly today any man or woman who admits being over 40 deserves a medal—for courage, if not for valor.

Everybody loves a parade, so why not vast parades once a year—perhaps it could be held on April Fools' Day—at the end of which all the new 40-year-olds would get a brass or leather medal, pinned on by the mayor?

At 45, 50, 55 and 60, each middle-aged person could be given an Oak Leaf Cluster, provided he still were employed and not a tax delinquent.

Then, at 65, the President and the Congress could issue him a brass sun dial—a gold watch might be overdoing it—and a parchment scroll reading:

"A grateful nation salutes you, John Doe, for a good job well done. You have served your country faithfully and well by raising a family, buying a home, staying out of jail, refraining from beating your wife in public, and contributing to the moral welfare of the U. S. Treasury."

Carbon Monoxide Blamed In Death Of Pair In Auto

BURT LAKE (AP)—A couple planning to be married this weekend was found dead Wednesday in a parked car near this Emmet County community.

Sheriff's deputies said Ronald Jordan, 26, of Petoskey, and Mary Lumley, 23, of Detroit, were found dead in the auto in a remote area. He said they had been missing since Saturday.
Deputies said there was no sign of violence and tentatively blamed carbon monoxide poisoning. Apparently the couple had parked after a date and had been overcome, deputies said.

Auto Dealers' First Quarter Real Bonanza

DETROIT (AP)—Cash registers jingled a merry tune in auto dealerships in the first quarter of this year as sales and profits ran ahead of the 1965 pace.

The big question was what would happen to dealer profits in the second quarter in view of a sales dip in April and early May.

The National Automobile Dealers Association said the opening three months profits were the best openers since 1955.

They were based on record first quarter sales of 2,206,970 cars, up over five per cent over the old mark set last year.

NADA said first quarter 1966 profits figured out to 2.6 per cent of sales, compared with 2.1 per cent for all of 1965. The opening months of 1965 also saw a 2.6 per cent profit ratio.

Because of slightly higher total volume this year, however, the average profit per new unit, retail figured out to $126, up $1 over last year's initial 90 days.

NADA said one cloud in the sales picture was a report that 17.1 per cent of the nation's 23,000 franchised new car dealers operated at a loss last quarter, compared with 16.2 for all of 1965. Only 3.4 per cent of the dealers had an operating loss in the first three months last year.

One aspect of NADA's report which attracted attention was disclosure that used car prices dropped in the first three months of this year. Dealer figures showed the average used car sold at $917, compared with $932 at this point a year ago and $938 for all of 1965.

The average NADA dealer had 34 used cars in inventory as of March 31, or a 41 days supply at current selling rates.

NADA pointed out that dealer expenses rose slightly in the first three months of 1966. They amounted to 12.32 per cent of total sales, compared with 11.94 per cent in the similar period last year.

In a supplemental survey, the trade publication Automotive News said 80 per cent of the dealers it queried reported April profits were as good or better as in the first quarter. About two-thirds said their April profits were as good or better than in April a year ago.

Start By Flying

FT. GORDON, Ga. (AP)—Time was when a foot soldier began training by walking. Now the first thing the Army does is give him a ride in an airplane. The 3rd Training Brigade, Infantry, is using two 119 airplanes to give the recruits some airborne training—to stimulate interest in the voluntary airborne infantry program.

House Passes Interior Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House passed and sent to the Senate Wednesday a compromise bill to appropriate $1,321,615,800 to finance the Interior Department for the fiscal year starting July 1. The roll-call vote was 378 to 10.

Both the House and the Senate had passed the bill in different form earlier. The compromise version was $26 million above the earlier House figure and $8 million below the original Senate allotments.

Here are the compromise figures affecting Michigan on items which were in dispute between the House and Senate versions of the money bill:

Bureau of Land Management—survey of islands in Minnesota and Michigan, $100,000.

Bureau of Commercial Fisheries—expanded biological research, Great Lakes fisheries, nothing.

Forest Service—recreation facilities, Lake Michigan recreation area, $90,000.

In This Corner

with Roy Crandall

Rollie Dotsch, new head football coach at Northern Michigan University, should be awarded the alka seltzer trophy as the busiest banquet speaker in the Upper Peninsula this spring . . . The former Michigan State griddier and ex-Escanaba High School grid coach spoke at the Newberry all sports dinner last Saturday and will be the featured guest at the Iron Mountain Senior Awards banquet Monday night, May 23.

Escanaba does not have a current Upper Peninsula track and field record holder . . . The last athlete from this city to gain that distinction was the late Mike Stemas of Holy Name who held the Class A-B pole vault record at 11 feet 8 1/2 inches . . . It was topped by Quentin Minkin of Ironwood with a leap of 11 feet 11 1/2 inches in 1963 . . . Dick McCarthy of Kingsford wiped Minkin's record off the book last spring by vaulting an even 12 feet.

The oldest record in the Upper Peninsula belongs to the former Hermansville flash, Reno Fochesato, who sped to an official 10.2 clocking in the 100 yard dash in the 1942 U. P. finals meet . . . Two other area athletes own current U. P. Class D records . . . John LaVallee of Garden has two of them, a 5-11 1/2 height in the high jump and a 4:41.3 clocking in the mile, and Dwayne Johnson of Rapid River has a 46 foot 6 inch record in the shot put.

Northern Michigan University in Marquette will host the Upper Peninsula high school tennis finals May 27-28 . . . A field of 14 schools will compete, all in an open classification . . . Last year Stambaugh captured the Class A-B crown and Alpha and Wakefield tied for the C-D championship . . . Gilido Canale of Northern will serve as meet director.

Bill Lucier, Michigan Tech football coach, wasn't too happy with his team's latest scrimmage session at Houghton . . . "The club was not offensively sharp," he said. "Our play execution was off and the offense did not attack. The defense took the play away from the team with the ball. I can only repeat what I have said before — we have a long way to go," Lucier stated.

At Northern, Coach Rollie Dotsch has 10 former Upper Peninsula players on his squad that will close spring drills with the annual Green-White intrasquad game Saturday night . . . Included are end Dennis Porter and halfback Jack Spuhler of Sault Ste. Marie, quarterback Rich McCarthy of Kingsford, quarterback Bill Sauter of Iron Mountain, linebackers Byron Johnson and Mark Martini of Bessemer, tackle Jerry Luttril of Stephenson, end Bob Bertrand of Menominee, halfback Nick Jarvela of Wakefield and back Jim Lindstrom of Iron Mountain who is sidelined with a shoulder injury.

Terry McDermott, Olympic Games speed skating champion and a former Soo Tech student, will be the guest speaker at the annual Soo Tech varsity athletic banquet Wednesday, June 1.

Tom Villeneuve, former Newberry High School, Soo Tech and University of Detroit basketball star, has been named head basketball coach at Detroit College of Business . . . Villeneuve had compiled a five year coaching record of 72 victories against 21 defeats at St. Hedwig and Austin High schools in Detroit.

Although he is only a junior this season, Holy Name's Jim Groos is already the school record holder in the 220 yard dash . . . The converted half miler with the powerful finish broke the previous school record of 24 seconds flat, set by Larry Farley in 1960, three times this season . . . His best performance came in the Class A-B regional meet here last week when he thundered in 23.4 seconds.

Killebrew Connects With Quickie Homer

By The Associated Press

Don Mincher didn't have much time and Harmon Killebrew didn't waste any.

But for fast work, how about Washington's Don Lock, who didn't have a moment to spare in making a game-saving catch for the Senators?

Mincher and Killebrew provided the thunder and lightning with long home runs Wednesday night as the Minnesota Twins rocked Chicago 7-1.

Lock, playing center field, raced to the 408-foot sign in Cleveland's Municipal Stadium, leaped and speared pinch hitter Duke Sims' bid for a home run, preserving Washington's 4-3 victory over the Indians.

Mincher was on the Twins' bench until the fifth inning when he replaced Rich Rollins, who left the game because of an upset stomach. But he made the most of his abbreviated stint, pushing across four runs in two appearances.

In the fifth, Mincher came up with the bases loaded and drew a run-producing walk. Two innings later, he poled a 375-foot homer with Cesar Tovar and Killebrew on base.

Killebrew, off to his slowest home run pace in six seasons, hit his second of the season and 299th of his career in the first inning, giving Jim (Mudcat) Grant a quick lead.

Washington's Pete Richert took a four-hit shutout into the ninth, but then was tagged by Rocky Colavito's pinch third homer. That brought Casey

Cox on in relief and Sims up to swing for Joe Azcue.

Sims smashed Cox' pitch to deepest center but Lock, off with the swing, leaped and caught the ball, robbing Sims of a homer and ending the game.

In other action, Wednesday night, Kansas City swept a doubleheader from California 7-1 and 7-4, New York ripped Detroit 7-2 and Boston nipped Baltimore 2-1 in 10 innings.

Mike Hershberger drove in three runs and scored two as Kansas City completed its sweep of the Angels. Jim (Catfish) Hunter pitched a four-hitter, striking out 10, and Ed Charles and Dick Green had three hits apiece in the first game.

Earl Wilson won his own game with a leadoff homer in the 10th inning that broke a 1-1 tie against Baltimore.

BILL MCGEE of Marquette Bishop Baraga cleared the bar with a leap of 6 feet 7 1/2 of an inch in the regional track meet here last Saturday to qualify for the U. P. finals at Marquette this Saturday. ## Sibley, McGee May Break Upper Peninsula Records In Class C Track Action

By RAY CRANDALL (Press Sports Editor)

If any Class C records are going to be set in the Upper Peninsula finals meet at Marquette Saturday, they will probably be established by Ray Sibley of Wakefield or Bill McGee of Marquette Bishop Baraga.

Sibley is a mercurial junior who already owns one Upper Peninsula record, a 23.1 clocking in the 220 yard dash as a sophomore last spring.

The Cardinal speedster bettered two other existing U. P. records in his regional qualifying meet last Saturday. Sibley flashed across the finish line in the 100 yard dash in 10.2 seconds in a preliminary run. That's well under the Class C record of 10.4 set by Roger Relich of Bessemer in 1962. In the long jump Saturday he sailed 21 feet 5 1/4 inches. The record is 21 feet 8 inches, set by Dick Koski of Wakefield in 1959.

Sibley, of course, will have to turn in his record breaking performances in the finals at Marquette Saturday to put his name in the U. P. book. Only performances in the finals are eligible for record consideration.

McGee startled regional observers at Escanaba last Saturday when he leaped 6 feet 7 1/2 of an inch in the high jump. The Class C record is 5-11 3/4, set by Dick Koski of Wakefield in 1958.

Several other athletes were flirting with record times in the regional meets last week.

Ken Kline of Stephenson stepped the mile in 4:47.8, not far off the record of 4:44 which was established 11 years ago by Robert Hitch of L'Anse.

Bob Fredrikson of L'Anse came up with a 53.4 effort in the 440 yard dash and David Hegg of Ontonagon was clocked in 53.5. The record is 53.2, set by Tom Makinen of Bessemer two years ago.

The Class C team championship was shared last spring by Gwinn and L'Anse. Gwinn has moved up to Class B in enrollment this year.

Following are the winning athletes, their performances in last Saturday's regional meets, and the U. P. record for each event:

Astros Challenge Giants

Houston For Real?

By The Associated Press

The Cincinnati Reds are beginning to rise to the surface but the big question in the National League is whether the Houston Astros are in over their heads.

Expected to be among the pennant contenders, the slow-starting Reds continued their climb from the tail-end section of the standings Wednesday night, moving to within one victory of the .500 level by beating the New York Mets 4-2. The Reds now have won 10 of their last 12 games.

At the same time, the Astros, expected to be down where the Reds were, reeled off their 14th and 15th victories in the last 19 games by sweeping a double-header from the Chicago Cubs 5-1 and 4-2. Houston has inched to within 2 1/2 games of front-running San Francisco.

The big question is whether the Astros are serious contenders or early season pretenders. So far, however, their bid has to be considered. As a whole, the team is hitting a respectable .245 and the pitching staff has a combined earned run average of 2.78.

And, the Astros have been getting some solid individual performances. Second baseman Joe Morgan is hitting at a .342 clip, outfielder Jim Wynn is among the runs-batted-in leaders with 23 and shortstop Sonny Jackson is the runner-up in stolen bases with 12 to 14 for Maury Wills of Los Angeles.

The Giants, meanwhile, remained at the head of the standings with a .697 percentage to Houston's .625, by downing the third-place Dodgers 6-4. Philadelphia climbed into fourth by edging St. Louis 4-3 and Atlanta whipped Pittsburgh 4-2.

Wynn smacked a two-run double and Lee Maye and Rusty Staub hit homers in support of Dave Guisti's seven-hit pitching in the Astros' opening game victory. Catcher John Bateman homered for Houston in the nightcap but the key plays were two errors by the Cubs' Ernie Banks that led to three unearned runs.

Robin Roberts needed relief help from Claude Raymond in the second game but got the victory, No. 284 of his major league career.

Sammy Ellis checked the Mets on four hits while the Reds collected seven hits and nine walks off four New York pitchers. Cincinnati put its pitch of reach with a three-run fifth built on three walks, a hit batter, Deron Johnson's double and an infield hit by Tommy Helms.

Trailing 3-2, the Giants came up with four runs in the eighth inning with the help of errors by second baseman Jim Lefebvre and outfielder Ron Fairly. Hal Lanier singled in the tying run and when Lefebvre tumbled the relay from the outfield on the hit, Tito Fuentes came around all the way from first and scored the lead run.

Hank Aaron and Woody Woodward produced the Braves' runs, Aaron connecting for his 12th homer, a two-run shot, and Woodward stroking a pair of run-producing doubles. Ken Johnson got the victory, scattering nine hits. Vern Law, just off the disabled list, took the loss — his first in his last 11 decisions.

The 2,000th hit of Dick Groat's major league career helped the Phillies to the winning run against the Cardinals. Tony Taylor led off the seventh inning with a single, moved to third on Groat's single and scored when Jerry Buchek bobbled Bill White's doubleplay grounder. Bob Gibson was the loser and now is 3-5.

The Chicago Cubs won two season series in 1965. They beat the New York Mets 11-7 and St. Louis Cardinals 10-8.

Service Restored Today:

Nine Cars Derail Near Crossing

By DAVE ANDREWS
The Chicago & North Western restored service on its main passenger line south from Escanaba today after a nine-car derailment at the M-569 crossing Wednesday afternoon forced the railroad to halt the Peninsula 400 passenger train last night at Green Bay.

A railroad spokesman said an ore train moved out of Escanaba on the line at 3 a.m. today after a wrecking crane from Green Bay had removed twisted cars from the track and crews had repaired the track.

The derailment came at 1:15 p.m. in the middle of a 72-car freight train, whipping gondola cars loaded with pulpwood and wood slabs across the highway into the ditches just east of the crossing.

The train was bound from Escanaba to Green Bay.

"It's a good thing there weren't any cars waiting for the train at the crossing. They would have been squashed like a peanut," one official said.

The train had a crew of five men with John Ohman of Escanaba as its engineer. None of the crew members were injured.

Trainmaster Carl Biron said cause of the derailment was probably either a broken rail or a broken wheel on one of the cars. Railroad officials were continuing their investigation.

Passengers on the Peninsula 400 for points north of Green Bay last night were transferred to charter bus to complete their journey. The Peninsula 400 normally runs between Chicago and Ishpeming.

Passengers this morning were taken by charter bus to Green Bay where the railroad held the "400." Service will resume through to Ishpeming tonight.

Highway M-569 was also blocked temporarily Wednesday afternoon by debris from the derailment, including pulpwood and wood slabs which flew from the cars.

One of the derailed gondola cars narrowly missed smashing a telephone pole. Seven of the nine cars off the track were gondola cars. Two boxcars were derailed but remained upright.

The train was pulling 49 loaded cars and 23 empties.

The railroad has been making repairs to the roadbed and ties in the area, but no new rails have been installed as yet.

Biron said that beginning next month quartermile sections of rail will be installed, the first of such length to be used in the Upper Peninsula.

Widow, 90, Is Birthday Glider

METHUEN, Mass. (AP) — "If I make it to my 90th birthday, I'm going up in a glider."

May Kimball, a sprightly, blue-eyed widow, made that pledge last year.

This week she achieved her ambition with an exhilarating glider flight over the Lawrence, Mass., area.

"Oh, how wonderful, just wonderful. It's so pretty," Mrs. Kimball exclaimed when the 20 minutes of soaring was over. The idea came to her on her 80th birthday as she visited the home of her niece, Mrs. Rudolph S. Dietrich, in Methuen. A glider passed over the house and Mrs. Kimball vowed then she'd take a glider ride on her 90th birthday.

She called a Methuen glider-pilot owner, James Doyle of Andover, and made arrangements for her first flight. Then she told her relatives and friends.

Mrs. Kimball is no stranger to travel.

"I can't count the number of times I have been aloft," she said.

Her niece recalled Mrs. Kimball traveled by bus to California several years ago.

Her opinion of glider travel as compared with other forms of transportation:

"You know, when I was in San Francisco, riding the cable cars there it was more scary than riding a glider."

Builders Charge Union Is Unfair

DETROIT (AP) — Unfair labor practice charges were filed by a contractors group Wednesday against Reinforced Steel Workers Local 429.

No progress has been reported in talks between the rod-busters and the Detroit chapter of the Associated General Contractors since the labor contract expired April 30.

The local has continued work at most job sites, but Stanley Veighey, a contractors' spokesman, said an unusual amount of sickness has hindered the projects.

Veighey said the charges, filed with the National Labor Relations Board, concerned the local leadership's refusal to discuss the contractors' wage offer, which he said involved a 90-cent hourly increase over two years.

Regis O'Brien, business manager of the local, said members would vote on the offer at a meeting Friday.

Long Vocal Climb Clicks

Petula Clark On Her Way

By DICK KLEINER
HOLLYWOOD—(NEA)—It's been a long climb, up from the luggage rack, but Petula Clark has made it.

Petula Clark

mailed to take care of the children. Back home there's a house in Switzerland and a place on the Riviera and a house in Paris they're selling.

All this from songs like "Downtown," songs that seem to combine the best features of rock 'n' roll and straight pop.

For Pet Clark, this is dream stuff, this life she's leading now. It wasn't always thus. As a kid in London, things were tough. Both her parents were nurses, working in a hospital. Her father was a frustrated singer, so when the golden-haired child showed signs of singing ability, he encouraged her.

By the time she was 11 she was traveling all over England, singing. Most of the time, she slept in the luggage rack of trains.

Once, during World War II, she went to a radio program called It's All Yours, a wartime BBC favorite. Children could send messages to their fathers and brothers in service. Pet was going to send a message to an uncle.

The program was broadcast from an underground theater off Piccadilly Circus. During that day's program, there was an air raid. Since the theater was underground, they just stayed there. Most of the kids were near panic, so the MC asked if anybody could sing to calm them down.

Pet Clark got up and sang "Mighty Lak a Rose," and that was her first radio appearance. There were a lot of letters about her song, so she soon had a booming radio career.

"It wasn't a happy childhood," Pet says. "I missed a lot of things. I had no real friends. And my adolescence was miserable."

One result of that realization is her firm conviction that no child of hers will be allowed to perform publicly—"not until they are 17 at least."

Her name—Petula—is the result of a family feud. She was the first female child born into her family in years. So all the aunts and cousins wanted her to be named after them.

"It got to be quite a drama," Pet says. "So my father decided to make up a name, invent one which would insult nobody. Petula was his invention. Now, of course, there are a good many Petulas—children, boats and cows."

Pet Clark is at the top of the singing profession now. Records, concerts, nightclubs—she has them all. And that poses a problem for an ambitious girl, which Petula Clark is.

"I'm going to have to branch out," she says, "and do something else, to keep progressing. I'm not sure what it will be—either Broadway or movies. I fancy. Whatever it is, it will have to be right. There was some talk about a musical version of 'I Am a Camera,' but I'm not sure I'm right for it."

Now Church Is Reapportioned

BALTIMORE, Md. (AP)—The Episcopal Diocese of Maryland has decided to follow the example of some of the 50 states.

Delegates to its annual convention have voted to reapportion themselves more closely to a "one-man, one-vote" principle.

Under the new constitutional amendment, the number of delegates each church may select will be based on its communicants rather than the number of clergy based at the church. One delegate will be allowed for each 400 communicants or fraction thereof.

Viet War Adds To Dollar Drain

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Viet Nam war has virtually ended any chance of halting the drain of American dollars overseas this year.

Secretary of the Treasury Henry H. Fowler indicated this much Wednesday. Although ending the deficit in the U.S. balance of payments in 1966 is still the goal, he said, he administration may have to settle for something less.

"It may well be that we will have to settle for an interim objective of equilibrium exclusive of the costs of Viet Nam," Fowler added.

He made the comments in reporting a disappointing $382-million deficit in the payments position for the first three months of this year.

Although exports exceeded imports by a $4.4-billion annual rate during the first quarter, he said officials had hoped for an overall $6-billion surplus this year. The trade surplus last year sunk to $4.8 billion from $6.7 billion in 1964.

Fowler said it's impossible to spell out how much more favorable the trade balance would be without the pressures on industrial capacity and demand created partly by the Viet Nam war. But he made clear the adverse effect may well have been greater than the direct costs of the war.

Overtime Pay Is Considered

DETROIT (AP) — A recommendation that state workers be paid time-and-a-half for overtime instead of straight time or compensatory time off goes to the State Civil Service Commission today.

A poll of the 19 major state departments showed 13 in favor of the time-and-a-half pay idea, five opposed and one neutral.

Opposed were the Conservation, Treasury, Public Health, Licensing and Regulation, and Attorney General's Departments.

The State Agriculture Department was neutral but did question the advisability of the idea. "Those that have a 24-hour operation generally favored the idea," said a Civil Service spokesman. "Those that have mostly unsupervised field or clerical workers were opposed."

State Civil Service conducted the poll when it was suggested that overtime pay would make it easier to fill some particularly hard-to-recruit positions.

Hunting Mishaps Hit 25-Year Low

LANSING (AP) — Michigan fielded the largest hunting force on record last year — 1,295,000 sportsmen — but its shooting accident rate was the lowest since 1940, reports the State Conservation Department.

There were 32,000 more hunters in the field last year than in 1964. The number of gun and archery accidents still was cut to 222, some 14 per cent below the 10-year average.

Included in the 1965 total were 17 firearm deaths and 205 non-fatal injuries.

There were 16 killed and another 264 injured during Michigan's 1964 hunting seasons.

The Conservation Department said the 1965 figures refuted the idea that more hunters automatically means more accidents.

The deaths and injuries followed the same patterns as noted before, the department said.

The greatest danger to the hunter, it has been proven, is from his own gun or those of his hunting companions.

One fifth of all the accidents last year were cases of the hunter shooting himself.

More than one third of the accidents happened when a hunter swung his gun around to shoot at a bird or game and hit a hunting buddy.

Bowmen had an excellent safety rate. Only three hunters were injured by stray arrows during the state's archery deer season, which attracted some $2,200 bow and arrow shooters.

Soapy Fails To Ask Permission, Barred At Ford

MONROE (AP) — G. Mennen Williams was barred from a Ford Motor Co. plant gate here Wednesday in his campaign for Democratic nomination for U.S. senator.

A guard turned away Williams and John VanSlambrouck, a Monroe commissioner. A Ford spokesman said Williams would have been allowed to campaign had he requested permission from the company.

The spokesman was asked whether eviction of Williams was connected with a recent endorsement of Detroit Mayor Jerome P. Cavanagh by Ford Chairman Henry Ford II. Cavanagh is Williams' major opponent for the Democratic nomination.

The spokesman replied that Ford's "normal company rule was enforced" that political candidates greet Ford workers off company property. He added "Gov. Williams is welcome to return to the Monroe plant and campaign on the premises."

Mary Ann Evans was the real name of George Eliot, the writer. She married a Mr. Cross the year before she died.
